What a Hoot! at the Cossackie Farmers Market

This year we are proudly displaying a cat from Catskill and a bear from Cairo, and we've returned the honor by sponsoring an owl in each village. "Tropical" by Paola Bari is prowling around the Cossackie Senior Center on Mansion Street, and "BEARY Wise" by Trisha Bone is teaching a class on all things wise and wonderful at Cossackie-Athens High School. Both critters are sponsored by the Hoot of the Owl Committee. In exchange, two of our owls have flown south. "Patriotic Poppy" is blooming in Catskill, and "Paisley" will be preening with the bears in Cairo. Be sure to check out the displays in both towns.

What a Hoot!

is a public art installation throughout the Village of Cossackie. There are over 40 lavishly decorated owls roosting by our streets, plus a cat from Catskill and a bear from Cairo.

- Use this map to find and visit them all...and while you're looking you just might find some lovely little details hidden among our feathered friends:
- Can you find:
- the owl with over 45 hidden creatures?
 - who has a bunny friend?
 - the owl that sports a little red truck?
 - a bird's nest?
 - a monarch butterfly
 - The star fish!
 - the owl who caught a trout
 - the owl who uses computer keyboard keys and can spell!
 - the owl who who has a shark
 - the 3-D butterfly!
